ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. By way of this petition the petitioner has prayed for a direction to the respondent authorities to accept and entertain the application of the petitioner for correcting the name of his son as "Kartikkumar" instead of "Kirtikumar" in the Register maintained under the provisions of Registration of Birth and Deaths Act, 1969 and to issue necessary amended certificate accordingly.

3. According to the petitioner, the correct name of his son is "Kartikkumar". However, inadvertently his name has been mentioned as "Kiritkumar" in the birth certificate issued by the competent authority. According to the petitioner in all other documetns the name of the son of the petitioner is "Kartikkumar". The petitioenr therefore approached the respondent authorities for correcting the name, but the respondent authority has refused to do the same. Hence the present petition is filed.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the respective parties. Learned counsel for the petitioner relied upon a decision of this Court in the case of Dr. Sukumar Vs. District Registrar, Births & Deaths, reported in 1993(1) GLR 93, wherein while considering sections 14, 15 and 16 of the said Act it is held that there is a power to correct an entry incorrectly made.

5. Learned counsel next relied upon a decision of this Court in the case of B.K. Suthar Vs. State and Another, reported in 1983(2) GLR 932 wherein it is held as under:

> "On a plain reading of rule 171 of the Bombay Civil Services Rules, it is manifestly clear that the government servant has a right to the correction of entry either on the ground of apparent clerical error or any other ground including the ground of want of care on the part of the person responsible for making the entry. The rule nowhere provides for any limitation or making such an application for correction of entry. It is, therefore, beyond the powers and the authority of the government to introduce a rule of limitation by an executive direction contained in the Government resolution since the Bombay Civil Services Rules are Rules enacted in exercise of powers conferred by proviso to Art.309 of the Constitution of India."

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner next relied upon a decision in the case of Mulla Faizal Vs. State, reported in 2002(2) GLR 1553 wherein it is held that the authorities, under the provisions of section 15 read with Rule 12 of the Rules framed thereunder, are duty-bound in law to make necessary enquiries and if necessary to obtain medical opinion to grant change of entry in the Birth register regarding the sex of the appellant and to issue to him a corrected birth certificate.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner also relied upon a decision in the case of Vimal M. Patel Vs. State of Gujarat, reported in 2001(3) GLR 2484, wherein it is held that the Registrar is entitled to hold an inquiry for this purpose and on the basis of material on record he is not powerless to make correct entries.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioner also relied upon a decision in the case of Dipika Arvindkumar Pancholi Vs. State of Gujarat and Another, reported in 2003(1) GLR 515, wherein it is held that since the statute is silent, it is the case of casus omissi, i.e. circumstances concerning which the Act is silent, and therefore the powers envisaged under Rule 11 can be extended to enter the name even after a period 15 years.

9. Learned counsel for the petitioner also relied upon a decision of the Division Bench of this Court in Letters Patent Appeal No.231 of 2001, wherein it is held that no direction can be issued by any authority to take away the powers of the Registrar of making correction in entreis which are erroneous in form or substance in the Register.

10. Learned counsel for the respondent is not able to contest the aforesaid settled law.

11. In the premises aforesaid, the petition is partly allowed. The respondent authority is directed to entertain the application submitted by the petitioner for correcting his name as "Kartikkumar" instead of "Kiritkumar" in the Register maintained under the provisions of Registration of Births & Deaths Act, 1969 within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of writ of this Court. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent with no order as to costs. D.S. permitted.
